(EXCERPT) FORMER DOMINICAN REVOLUTIONARY PARTY (PRD) PRESIDENT

ANGEL MIOLAN WILL NOT CONDUCT DIVISIONIST ACTIVITIES WITHIN THE

PARTY RANKS EVEN THOUGH HE WAS TRIED BY THE PARTY. DURING AN INTERVIEW

GRANTED TO RADIO SANTO DOMINGO TELEVISION, THE POLITICIAN ASKED THE

THAT THE PARTY MAY FULFILL ITS HISTORIC ROLE IN CONNECTION WITH NATIONAL PROBLEMS. HE POINTED OUT THAT TO THIS END HE PLANS TO

CARRY OUT A WORKING PLAN AIMED NOT ONLY AT STRENGTHENING UNITY BUT ALSO AT PUTTING THE PARTY IN GOOD SHAPE TO PARTICIPATE AND WIN THE ELECTIONS IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF FREEDOM AND GUARANTEES. HOWEVER, THE POLITICIAN GAVE NO DETAILS ABOUT THE PLAN AND HE DID NOT SPECIFY
HOW HE INTENDS TO CARRY IT OUT.

MIGLAN REFUSED TO SAY IF FREE ELECTIONS COULD BE HELD WITH THE PRESENCE OF FOREIGN TROOPS IN THE COUNTRY. HE SAID, I AM NO
FORTUNETELLER AND WILL NOT ATTEMPT TO SAY WHAT WILL HAPPEN IN THE FUTURE. I BELIEVE THAT MY PARTY AND ALL DOMINICAN PARTIES CAN EXAMINE THE SERIOUS SITUATION PREVAILING IN OUR HOMELAND DUE TO FOREIGN OCCUPATION AND THE OTHER PROBLEMS FACING US WHILE SEEKING A SOLUTION WHICH IS REALISTIC AND YET DOES NOT INJURE NATIONAL DIGNITY.
MIGLAN EMPHASIZED THAT DIALOGUE AND THE CONFERENCE TABLE COULD PRODUCE SOLUTIONS WHICH SERVE THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE DOMINICAN
PEOPLE. THE DIFFERENCES EXISTING BETWEEN FORMER PRESIDENT JUAN BOSCH

AND ANGEL MIGLAN STEM FROM THE DIFFERENCE OF VIEWS REGARDING THE

MEANING OF A "RETURN TO CONSTITUTIONALITY." SAID MIOLAN TO RADIO

SANTO DOMINGO TELEVISION. MIOLAN POINTED OUT THAT WHILE HE IS FIGHTING

FOR A RETURN TO CONSTITUTIONALITY THROUGH ELECTIONS, PROFESSOR JUAN

BOSCH SEEKS THE SAME GOAL BUT WITHOUT ELECTIONS. THE RETURN TO

STATE OF THE APRIL REVOLUTION, ADDED MIOLAN. WHEN ASKED IF HE THOUGHT

THAT BOSCH CONTINUED TO HOLD THE SAME VIEW AFTER HE SAW THE WAY

EVENTS WERE GOING, MIOLAN ANSWERED THAT HE DID NOT KNOW IF THE PRD

LEADER HAD CHANGED HIS VIEWS.

COURTS RECEIVE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE ON PLOT

✓ Santo Domingo Radio Comercial in Spanish 1030 GMT 1 December 1965--C

(Excerpt) The attorney general of the republic stated yesterday that the courts have received the denunciation made by the President of the Republic about the existence of a terrorist plan. He pointed out that he has been informed by District Attorney Daniel Octavio (?Anicovais) that a person has been arrested in Santiago de los Caballeros as a result of the investigations underway.

The attorney general said that the name of the arrested person could not be released in order not to obstruct the investigations. He added that the investigations are also aimed at determining if the actions reported by the provisional president are linked to the unsuccessful Santiago de los Caballeros insurrectional movement. He pointed out that the sentence prescribed by the Supreme Court of Justice on 26 November also applies to other persons who might be arrested if their connection with the Santiago events is verified.

District Attorney's Statement

✓ Santo Domingo Radio Mil in Spanish 1130 GMT 30 November 1965--C

(Recorded statements by Barahona District Attorney Dr. Luis (Herminio--phonetic) Padilla on recent uprising)

(Excerpts) After the plot was discovered in Santiago and after its heads were arrested, we received orders from our superiors to arrest persons presumably implicated in the coup d'etat. According to the law, we arrested several persons who presumably were implicated in the plot. The prisoners were turned over to the Barahona District examining court. According to reports, the order to release the prisoners came from that court.

It has been said that there was no military pressure behind the freeing of the prisoners. I may say, however, that on that day, an unusually large group of military men were seen in the Palace of Justice. I can affirm that several Dominican air force officers, including the commanding officer of the (name indistinct) air base, visited my office. I cannot explain the reason for their visit due to circumstances which you may readily understand.

Further Details

✓ Santo Domingo Radio Comercial in Spanish 1700 GMT 30 November 1965--C

(Excerpt) A judicial source reported that the persons arrested in connection with the Santiago de los Caballeros unsuccessful subversive plot were transferred this morning to La Victoria national penitentiary. This group, which includes approximately 47 persons, had been jailed at the National Police Headquarters since they were arrested. These persons will be tried by a national district trial court and charged with criminal actions against state internal security.

✓ ANGEL MIOLAN INTERVIEWED ON HIS DISMISSAL

Santo Domingo Radio Comercial in Spanish 1735 GMT 29 November 1965--C

(Recorded interview of PRD leader Angel Miolan)

(Summary) Announcer: Mr. Miolan. May we get to the point immediately? What do you have to say about the trial and the verdict handed down against you by your party?

Miolan: The verdict is unfair. The board did not follow normal procedures established by the party disciplinary regulations. First, I did not receive a summons to the trial. Secondly, the board offered no provisions for a defense. Had I attended the trial, regardless of what I might have said I would have been condemned. I would have been expelled from the party without doubt because those were the instructions given to the board. I must say--although it hurts me very much--that Prof. Juan Bosch, who ordered my expulsion, is the only person who must be blamed for this.

Announcer: Do you attribute so much power to Professor Bosch within PRD that he could decree your expulsion without consulting the board?

Miolan--While I may be the only one frank enough to say so, many others, including members of the jury, are aware that Bosch exercises complete control over all the leaders of the party at this time.

Announcer: Do you intend to appeal the case?

Miolan: I do not know what I may do. I have not had time to study the matter properly. If I had the slightest hope of appearing before a board where I would be free to defend myself, I would not hesitate to appeal. I do not fear to face the truth where justice prevails. I think all political leaders should be ready to appear when called to defend themselves. However, I do not think a political leader should accept any verdict which has been reached beforehand.

Announcer: What is your opinion of those who testified against you? Do they hold different political ideas than you do?

Miolan: I do not know. I have always been their friend. I do not know what they may have against me. I have nothing against them.

Announcer: What do you have to say regarding the charges against you?

Miolan: I hate to remember the past when innocent persons were burdened with false charges, without a possibility to defend themselves. This happened during the Trujillo regime. Unfortunately, at this moment my party is doing the same thing. I know that many of the jury members do not agree with things as they are, but they must obey orders from above. The people must know that the PRD is facing a dramatic and difficult internal situation at this time.

Announcer: Mr. Miolan, the majority of the PRD members are waiting to hear the last word regarding your separation from the party which you founded. What would be your attitude if you were ousted?

Miolan: I want to tell all the members of my party that all the charges lodged against me are false. Those who have lived and risked their lives with me know that I would never squeal on anyone, that I would never go against the interests of the people and that I would never approve the intervention of foreign troops in our country.

They also know that I have risked my life for the party and the country and that I am willing to continue risking it. I am not going to be provoked. I feel sorry for the party, not for myself. I will continue to be a friend of my friends and to feel sorry for my enemies. I will continue to defend the PRD regardless of what may happen. The PRD is my home and no one can expel me from my own home.
